3. Protection of personal information

Any personal information provided by the client to the Company will be treated as confidential and shared only within the Company and it will not be disclosed to any third party except under any regulatory or legal proceedings. In case such disclosure is required to be made by law or any regulatory authority, made on a 'need-to-know' basis, unless otherwise instructed by the regulatory authority. Under such circumstances, the Company shall expressly inform the third party regarding the confidential nature of the information.

4. Affiliates and Partners

The Company may share information with affiliates in the event such information is reasonably required by such affiliate in order to provide the products or services to its clients. The Company may share information with partners, affiliates and associates in order to offer additional similar products and services that meet clients' needs and which are delivered in a manner that is useful and relevant only where clients have authorized the Company to do so.

5. Non-affiliated third parties

The Company does not sell, license, lease or otherwise disclose clients' personal information to third parties, except as described in this Privacy Policy.

The Company reserves the right to disclose personal information to third parties where required by Law, regulatory and other government authorities. The Company may also disclose information as necessary to credit reporting or collection agencies as reasonably required in order to provide the services to Company and/or its clients.

In addition, the Company may engage third parties to help carry out certain internal functions such as account processing, fulfillment, client service, client satisfaction surveys or other data collection activities relevant to its business. Use of the shared information is strictly limited to the performance of the above and is not permitted for any other purpose. All third parties with which the Company shares personal information are required to protect the personal information in accordance with all relevant legislation and in a manner similar to the way the
